WEEK 1: LESSON 1 Strand:

Listening and Speaking (Theme: Sports)

Sub Strand:

Critical Listening: Distinguishing Facts & Opinions

Specific Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Select specific details from an oral presentation on popular sports.
- Distinguish facts from opinions in an oral text.
- Evaluate information from an oral presentation for accuracy.

Key Inquiry Question(s):

- How can we tell whether something is true or false?

Core Competencies, Values, and PCIs:

Core Competencies	Values	PCIs
Communication and collaboration	Integrity	Health and sports promotion
Critical thinking and problem solving	Respect	Effective communication

Learning Resources:

- Grade 10 English Curriculum Design
- Audio recordings on sports
- Fact/Opinion charts
- Digital devices

Organization of Learning:

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Teacher plays a short 30-second audio snippet of a sports report.
- Learners state which statements in the clip sounded like verifiable facts versus personal beliefs.

Lesson Development (25 minutes):

- Step 1: Direct instruction on identifying factual indicators (objective proof, statistics, verifiable events) versus opinion signals (adjectives of value, feelings, interpretations) in spoken discourse.
- Step 2: Learners listen attentively to an oral presentation on popular sports and note down specific details, statistics, and assertions.
- Step 3: In pairs, learners filter incorrect or imprecise statements from the recording and isolate verified facts from opinions using a Fact/Opinion two-column chart.
- Step 4: Pairs present their categorized statements to the class, defending their classification using evidence from the oral presentation.

Conclusion (10 minutes):

- Teacher asks oral review questions on how to detect bias and opinion markers in oral speeches.
- Learners summarize the core steps for evaluating oral presentations for accuracy.

Extended Activities:

- Listen to a sports radio commentary or evening sports bulletin at home and write down three facts and three opinions expressed by the commentators.
