	GRADE 3	IRE

Strand: Qur'an

Sub-Strand: Short surah

Objectives:

By the end of the lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Observe pictures in the learners' books and explain what is happening.
2. Identify and explain who Abu Lahab is.
3. Appreciate the importance of treating others well for peaceful co-existence.
4. Retell the story of Abu Lahab as narrated in the Qur'an.

Key Inquiry Question:

- Who is Abu Lahab?

Learning Resources:

- CDs
- Flash Cards
- Pocket Board
- Qur'an
- KLB Visionary IRE Activities Grade 3, pg. 1

Organisation of Learning:

Introduction (5 minutes)

- Review the previous lesson focusing on the importance of kindness and character.
- Introduce the topic of Abu Lahab by discussing what learners can see in the pictures provided in the learning resources. Ask guiding questions to stimulate discussion about their observations.

Lesson Development (20 minutes)

Step 1: Picture Observation

- Activity: Students observe and discuss pictures in their books that relate to the story of Abu Lahab.
- Questions to guide discussion:
 - What do you see in this picture?
 - How do you think the people in the picture feel?

Step 2: Who is Abu Lahab?

- Activity: Explain who Abu Lahab is, using simple language.
- Discussion Points:
 - Why is he an important figure in the Qur'an?
 - What lessons can we learn from his actions?

Step 3: Retelling the Story

- Activity: In pairs, students will retell the story of Abu Lahab using key phrases and concepts from their readings.
- Encouragement: Remind students to use their own words and ensure understanding of the story's moral lessons.

Step 4: Class Sharing

- Activity: Invite a few pairs to share their retellings with the class.
- Follow-up: Ask students to share one thing they learned about treating others well.

Conclusion (5 minutes)

- Summarize the key points:
 - Who Abu Lahab is and the significance of his story.
 - The importance of kindness and treating others well.
- Conduct a brief interactive activity, such as a "Kindness Pledge," where students can promise to treat others well.
- Prepare learners for the next session by introducing the next topic, e.g., "Stories of Kindness in the Qur'an."

Extended Activities:

1. Art Project: Draw a picture that represents the moral of Abu Lahab's story.
2. Role Play: In pairs or groups, create a skit that shows the importance of kindness.
3. Reflection Journals: Ask students to write a short paragraph about a time they chose to be kind to someone else.
