SURAH-AL-HUMAZA:

Translation (Meaning of Surah Al-Humazah)

1. Woe to every backbiter and mocker,
2. Who collects wealth and continuously counts it.
3. He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal.
4. No! He will surely be thrown into the Crusher (Hellfire).
5. And what can make you know what the Crusher is?
6. It is the Fire of Allah, eternally fueled,
7. Which mounts directed at the hearts.
8. Indeed, it (Hellfire) will be closed down upon them,
9. In extended columns.

Lessons from Surah Al-Humazah

1. Accountability for Speech and Actions:
 - o Mocking, gossiping, and slandering others are severe sins that can lead to punishment in the Hereafter.
2. Materialism is a Trap:
 - o Accumulating wealth without purpose or responsibility fosters arrogance and detachment from spirituality.
3. False Sense of Security:
 - o Wealth cannot save a person from death or the consequences of their deeds.
4. Reminder of Hellfire:
 - o The punishment of Hellfire is vividly described to instill fear and deter sinful behavior.

Teachings from Surah Al-Humazah

1. Guard the Tongue:
 - o Muslims are urged to avoid mockery, backbiting, and harmful speech.
2. Balance in Wealth:
 - o Wealth should be viewed as a means to do good and not an end in itself.
3. Focus on the Hereafter:
 - o This surah reminds us that worldly possessions are temporary, and the real focus should be on preparing for the Hereafter.
4. Cure for Arrogance:
 - o Humility and gratitude are essential virtues to counter the arrogance stemming from wealth.
