Specific Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:

- Describe the modes of preservation of the Qur'an during the time of the Prophet (S.A.W.), the Rightly Guided Caliphs, and presently.
- Memorize some chapters/verses of the Qur'an as a means of preserving it.
- Assess the importance of preserving the Qur'an to safeguard its authenticity.
- Cherish the Qur'an as a guide for mankind.

Key Inquiry Questions:

- Why is it important to preserve the Qur'an?
- How is the Qur'an preserved in modern times?

Learning Resources:

- The Qur'an
- Charts depicting preservation methods
- Course Workbooks (OUP, IRE, Learners Book 8, pg 1-3)
- Digital devices for research and presentations

Organisation of Learning:

Introduction (5 minutes)

- Review the previous lesson emphasizing any relevant connections to the Qur'an.
- Guide learners to read and discuss the key concepts from the current lesson's learning resources, focusing on the importance and methods of preserving the Qur'an.

Lesson Development (30 minutes)

Step 1: Research the Modes of Preservation (10 minutes)

- Divide students into small groups.
- Each group researches the preservation methods used during the time of the Prophet (S.A.W.) and the Rightly Guided Caliphs, as well as modern methods. Use provided course books and digital devices to aid in research.
- Each group should prepare a brief summary of their findings for presentation.

Step 2: Present Findings (10 minutes)

- Groups will present their findings using charts or PowerPoint presentations.
- Encourage each group to highlight key points regarding the methods of preservation through the ages.

Step 3: Recitation/ Memorization Activity (5 minutes)

- Direct learners to memorize and recite selected chapters/verses from the Qur'an.
- Encourage students to share their recitations with the class and discuss the meaning and importance of those verses.

Step 4: Group Discussion on Importance (5 minutes)

- Have each group discuss the significance of preserving the Qur'an in their groups and take notes.
- Facilitate a class discussion on why safeguarding the authenticity of the Qur'an is essential for the Muslim community and individual believers.

Conclusion (5 minutes)

- Summarize the key points discussed and the specific learning objectives achieved.
- Conduct a brief interactive quiz or discussion to reinforce the topics covered.
- Preview the next lesson's topic and suggest questions for students to consider at home.

Extended Activities:

1. Creative Presentation: Create a visual display (posters or digital presentations) that illustrates the historical timeline of the preservation of the Qur'an.
2. Personal Reflection: Write a short essay on what the Qur'an means to them personally and how they can contribute to its preservation.
3. Community Project: Organize a community event where students can share and teach others about the importance and preservation of the Qur'an.
