3. Adopt the use of greetings and bid farewell in daily interactions.

Key Inquiry Questions:

- How do we greet different people, such as teachers and friends, using appropriate words?

Learning Resources:

- Longhorn Language Activities Pre-primary 2 flashcards

Organisation of Learning:

Introduction (5 minutes):

- Review the previous lesson about polite words and interactions.
- Identify and discuss the importance of greetings in daily life using relevant flashcards, asking questions like “What does this greeting mean?”

Lesson Development (20 minutes):

Step 1: Understanding Greetings

- Activity: Show flashcards featuring different greetings (e.g., "Hello," "Good morning," "Hi").
- Discussion: Ask students to describe the purpose of greetings. Guide them to express ideas like "We greet to show respect" or "We greet to be friendly."

Step 2: Different Types of Greetings

- Activity: Group students into pairs. Assign each pair a different type of greeting to practice (e.g., greetings for friends, teachers, or family).
- Discussion: Allow pairs to present their greetings to the class. Highlight appropriate contexts for each type.

Step 3: Role-Playing

- Activity: Create a playful role-play scenario where students practice greetings and farewells (e.g., meeting a friend, saying goodbye to a teacher).
- Guidance: Walk through a few scenarios together, encouraging students to use phrases learned.

Step 4: Goodbye Ritual

- Activity: Discuss and practice farewells. Use flashcards to teach phrases like "Goodbye," "See you later," and "Take care."
- Discussion: Reflect on when and why we say goodbye, connecting it back to feelings of politeness and respect.

Conclusion (5 minutes):

- Summarize the key points: the importance of greetings, different types of greetings, and appropriate contexts for saying farewell.
- Interactive Activity: Organize a "Greeting Circle" where each student greets the person next to them using a different greeting from the lesson.
- Preview the next session, which will focus on polite responses to greetings.
